

M14 Mathematics

'Angle Birds'

We created our own levels for the game 'Angry Birds' using 2D geometry

The Angle Birds activity was extremely fun and I highly enjoyed it. The task was very challenging and tested what we knew about 2D geometry. The part I found most tricky was using a protractor to measure everything and also making sure I included every angle, triangle and polygon in the checklist Ms. Knight gave us.

- Dani M14

